

KAHANI KORNER MINI GUIDE

5 Dinner Table Urdu Conversation Starters

No worksheets. No correcting. No prep.

Ask one question, let English answers count, and echo a little Urdu back.

1

Aaj kya acha hua?

What good thing happened today?

Easy follow-up: Phir kya hua? • Then what happened?

2

Aaj sab se mazedar cheez kya hui?

What was the funniest/best part of today?

Easy follow-up: Kyun? • Why?

3

Aaj tumne kis ki madad ki?

Who did you help today?

Easy follow-up: Kaise? • How?

4

Agar kal kuch bhi kha sako, kya khaoge?

If you could eat anything tomorrow, what would you eat?

Easy follow-up: Mere liye bhi? • For me too?

5

Kal kis cheez ka intezaar hai?

What are you looking forward to tomorrow?

Easy follow-up: Sab se zyada? • The most?

THE DINNER-TABLE RULE

- Your child can answer in English. Understanding the Urdu is still progress.
- Repeat one small piece of their answer back in Urdu instead of correcting them.
- One question on one ordinary night is enough. Consistency beats a perfect lesson.
